

Key Health & Safety Facts 2018

Key Facts

144

Fatal injuries to workers

15 Billion

Annual cost of injuries and ill health from current working conditions £

30.7 Million

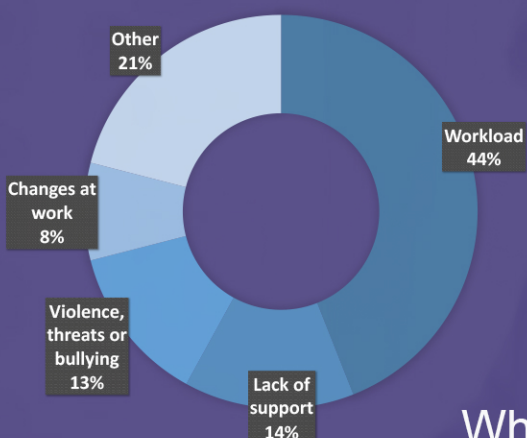

Working days lost due to work-related ill health and non-fatal workplace injuries

1.4 Million+

Working people suffering from work-related ill health

Work-related stress, depression or anxiety

Average Cause

Key Facts

595,000

Workers suffering from work-related stress, depression or anxiety (new or long-standing).

239,000

Workers suffering from a new case of work-related stress, depression or anxiety.

15.4 Million

Working days lost due to work-related stress, depression or anxiety.

What can you do as an employer?

Check out our Blogs on work-related stress within the workplace. Learn how to first identify stress in your workplace and then how to tackle it.

Identifying Stress

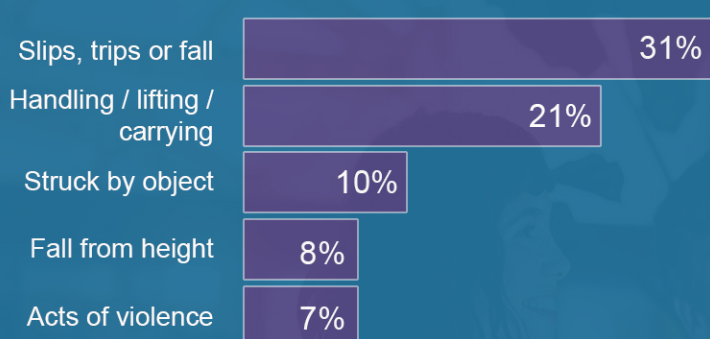

<https://elliswhittam.com/blog/identify-workplace-stress/>

Tackling Stress

<https://elliswhittam.com/blog/tackling-work-related-stress/>

Workplace injury

Non-fatal injuries to employees by main accident kinds

Key Facts

144

Workers killed at work.

550,000

Estimated non-fatal injuries to workers according to self-reports from the Labour Force Survey.

71,062

Employee non-fatal injuries reported by employers under RIDDOR.

3.9 Million

Estimated working days lost due to non-fatal workplace injuries according to self-reports from the Labour Survey.

What can you do as an employer?

Check out our Blogs on work place injury as well as booking on to our “Managing Safely” courses. Learn how to manage injury in the workplace as well as how you can reduce the risk.

Injury Related Blogs

<https://elliswhittam.com/?s=injury>

IOSH Managing Safely

<https://elliswhittam.com/training-and-elearning/?category=health-safety-courses>

Costs to Britain

Costs passed on to employers

£3 Billion

Key Facts

£15 Billion

Annual costs of work-related injury and ill health, excluding long latency illness such as cancer.

£9.7 Billion

Annual costs of new cases of work-related ill health, excluding long latency illness such as cancer.

£5.2 Billion

Annual costs of workplace injury.

What can you do as an employer?

Check out our Blog on managing absenteeism and injury as an employer.

Dealing with absenteeism

<https://elliswhittam.com/blog/dealing-absenteeism-presenteeism/>

Call us now on 0345 226 8393 to discuss how we can prioritise Employment Law, HR and Health & Safety in your business.